TRAVELLING AGENT

More Welcome Tidings

It is again our privilege to publish the report of new and signal victories over the rebellion

Port Hudson, though long and stoutly defended has at length yielded to the persistent courage of Gen Banks and his patriotic troops Our loss during the siege has doubtless been terrible —enough perhaps to have discouraged and turned away officers of less determination and bravery than Banks and Auger and Grover—three chieftains as accomplished, patriotic and bold as any on all the rolls of our noble army The Mississippi river is now free from all obstruction, and its navigation is open to the inland commerce of the nation Such a result is of far more consequence than any victory heretofore gained and we earnestly hope that its benefits now secured will never be again lost

The defeat of the skillful Johnston, who was probably moving to the relief of Vicksburg is another admirable achievement, and leaves the great Southwest without a rebel force of any consequence, Bragg having retreated from Chattanooga to Atlanta Georgia with a loss of 4,000 prisoners who are now in possession of Gen Rosencrans

We are also rejoiced to learn that the action of our forces near Charleston has been attended with so much success as to secure the capture of Morris Island—a position that enables them in a great measure to command the harbor of that doomed city Our faith is unwavering that its name will before long be written among the captured places with New Orleans, Vicksburg and Port Hudson.

The exciting intelligence from New York city, is an evidence of the infernal rascality which Fernando Wood and his treasonable associates have for a long time been practising and contriving, till they have succeeded in raising a mob of the vilest and most desperate scoundrels that could be found in the city The purpose of the base instigators of the disturbance was doubtless to cause embarrassment to the officers of the Government, but the result seems rather to have been a destructive raid upon property and human life, and at last advices, the riot had not been quelled Of course such a state of things can only exist for a very brief time in a city like New York, where there are loyal and law-abiding men enough in addition to the police and military force to crush into powder all who take part in such a demonstration of violence, robbery and murder Its effect, we have no doubt will be to consolidate more strongly and thoroughly the Union sentiment of the city and State, and also we trust to teach the atrocious schemers and traitors, who sought in this way to assist their rebel friends, that their wickedness will no longer be tolerated We are glad that Governor Seymour has shown himself ready to do his duty, and we hope that he will see to it, that sufficient and if need be summary justice is done to those who began and continued so gross an attack upon law and liberty in the metropolis of the United States

EMIGRATION OF TEN THOUSAND MORMONS FROM WALES.—On June 2d no less than two hundred persons left Cardiff en route for the Salt Lake All these were believers in the Mormon imposture, and they are taken out to their adopted El Dorado under the protection and guidance of several of the so-called "Elders," the funds for the purpose being provided by the Church Another batch is to leave in two or three months from the South Wales district It is believed that since the first appearance of the Latter day Saints no less than ten thousand persons have been induced by the gross imposture to leave Wales for Salt Lake It has transpired however that a great number after receiving a free passage to New York, altered their minds as regards faith and destination and quietly settled down in the States —Liverpool Times

ARRIVAL —The bark Helen W Almy, Captain Freeman, arrived in Portland on Saturday night, from San Francisco She left on the 30th of June, and brings a large assorted cargo.

CONSIGNEES —P Selling, Silver & Fain Sayer & Co [illegible] Northrup & Co Failings & Hatt R Pittock Schwartz & Co, Goldsmith Bros, A Cahn & Co M Seller & Co Allen & Lewis, D F Harrington Willamette Woolen Mfg Co Hamilton, Wilson & Co Knapp, Burrell & Co Richards & McCraken Fleit Weil & Co J McHenry, Smith & Davis Haas Bros J Levy & Bro [illegible] Walter Bros, Parker Bros, Estabrooks Ad Miller Cohen Lyon & Co J Sell [illegible] Wiberg & Strowbridg

NOTICE —To-morrow we shall publish a number of papers found upon the bodies of the five persons found in the waters of the South Salmon some weeks since with a view to their identification by their friends or relatives

THOSE APPLES —We received a basket of fine apples from Mr George Myers for which he will please accept our grateful acknowledgments He can rest assured that they were duly appreciated, and were quickly transferred from one basket to another Indeed, our devil took in so extensively that he declared something was the matter and retired at an early hour doubl[illegible]

Detachments of troops with two pieces of ordnance fired on the rioters at 9 o'clock this morning Three rounds of blank cartridges were fired from the cannon and the mob dispersed, threatening to come back with arms A company of artillery was stoned on Pitt street, when the Lieutenant ordered the company to fire, which they did killing several, and the rest fled All the stores down town are closed The armories, arsenals and public buildings are fully garrisoned The mob is quite dense in City Hall Park when Gov. Seymour addressed them stating he had sent his Adjutant General to Washington to request that the draft be stopped, and implored the crowd to respect property and person, and the state of things would be made satisfactory. All the omnibuses and horse cars have stopped running on the streets of the mob The mob took possession of a tenement block in 34 street this morning but were driven out by a company of infantry who shot and killed several An affray between a detachment of marines and a body of rioters took place on Delaware street during the forenoon and resulted in killing three and wounding six of the latter

Additional News

We compile the following items from California papers, as they were not sent to us last week, and containing intelligence which will interest our readers

LEAVENWORTH, July 8 —Gen Blunt with all the cavalry he could raise started from Fort Scott to Fort Gibson in the late Indian territory on the 6th Information received at Headquarters of this district from the frontier shows that Col Phillips' Indian brigade was hard pressed by the enemy who are reported to be 7,000 strong Three infantry regiments were marching to relieve him — Gen Blunt took no train and will cross Arkansas and offer battle

NEW YORK July 9 —The Herald's special says our forces occupy Harper's Ferry

Dispatches say that Generals Grant and Meade have been promoted—the former to be Major General, the latter to be Brigadier General in the regular army

The Times correspondent with Kilpatrick's cavalry writing from South Mountain, confirms the capture on the 4th of July of all Ewell's wagon trains which were four miles long and were strongly guarded by cavalry and infantry Also captured 1,500 prisoners and 2 000 horses and mules

A Washington special dispatch states that the first draft will be for 300,000 men and will be made as soon as the enrollment is completed The quotas for several States have already been filled

The draft commenced here on Monday It is computed that the quota of the city is 12,000 of Brooklyn 4 000 The draft commenced at Pittsburg on Wednesday

BALTIMORE, July 9 —Further information places our loss in killed and wounded during the three days fight at Gettysburg at 5,000 The rebel loss in killed and wounded, exceeds ours by at least [illegible],000

NEWBERN, N C , July 7 —To Gen Halleck I have the honor to report that a cavalry expedition sent from here on the 3d has returned, having without loss succeeded in destroying two miles of railroad about Warsaw, burned all the culverts for five miles, and also destroyed the armory at Kenansville with a large quantity of small arms and commissary and quartermaster's stores and captured a number of prisoners, 150 horses, and brought in from 200 to 300 contrabands

Signed FOSTER

INDIANAPOLIS, July 9 —Morgan's forces said to number 6 000 to 8 000, crossed into Indiana and captured Corridon Our forces are falling back The rebels are supposed to have marched on New Albany and Jeffersonville where there are larger quantities of supplies and stores Troops are being organized throughout the State and sent forward as rapidly as possible Business is entirely suspended to day citizens are forming companies for self defense One regiment was raised since last night It is reported that two citizens were killed when the rebels entered Corridon

CHICAGO, July 9 —M S Fisher, of [illegible], was nominated for Governor of Iowa by the Democratic Convention at Des Moines to day

LOUISVILLE July 9 —Eleven rebel regiments of 4,800 men, with ten pieces of artillery, crossed the Ohio at Brandenburg yesterday, and encamped last night near Corridon They were under command of John Morgan, who stated that his destination was Indianapolis, but it is not credited Great fear prevailed at New Albany The inhabitants believe Morgan intends approaching that place Before leaving Brandenburg, two steamers were captured Morgan burned one of them

CHICAGO July 9 —President Lincoln's reply to the Ohio Committee who waited on him to ask the release of Vallandigham, after an argument in defence of the course pursued concludes thus I send you duplicates of this letter in order that you or a majority of you may, if you choose endorse the following propositions

First—That there is rebellion now in the United States the object of which is to destroy the Union and that in your opinion, the Army and Navy are constitutional means for the suppression of the rebellion

Second—That no one of you will do anything which in his own judgment will tend to hinder enlistments, or increase or favor desertions, or lessen the efficiency of the army or navy, while engaged in efforts to suppress that rebellion

Third—That each of you will, in his sphere, do all he can to have officers and soldiers in service in the army and navy while engaged in efforts to suppress the rebellion paid, fed, clad and otherwise well provided for and supported. In case of a majority signing this there will be a reversal order in relation to Vallandigham

The President says, I do this because he is not present to speak for himself hence I expect that on hearing of it he would not put himself practically in antagonism with the position of his friends

The Committee replied as follows However just the undersigned might regard the principles contained in the proposition submitted by the President, or how much soever they might under other circumstances, feel inclined to endorse the sentiments contained therein, yet they assure him that they have not been authorized to enter into bargains or conditions with the President to procure the release of Vallandigham The opinions of the undersigned touching the questions involved in the propositions are well known and are sufficiently manifested in the resolutions of the Convention which they represent and they cannot suppose that the President expects they will seek the discharge of Vallandigham by a pledge implying not only an imputation upon their own sincerity and fidelity as citizens but also carrying with it by implication concession of the legality of his arrest, trial and banishment against which they and the Convention they represent have solemnly protested, and while they have asked a reversal of the order of banishment it was not as a favor but as a right due to the people of Ohio and with a view to avoid the responsibility of a conflict or a disturbance of the public tranquility They do not doubt nor does Vallandigham desire [illegible] of their dignity or self respect

CINCINNATI July 10th —It is reported this morning that the rebels are [illegible] on the river between here and Louisville with the intention of capturing passenger boats

A Vicksburg correspondent says, among the officers captured were 1 Lieutenant General 4 Major Generals, and between 15 and 20 Brigadier Generals

WASHINGTON July 9 —The operations of Gen Dix's command at Whitehouse and on the Peninsula are successful having cut off direct communication from Richmond and Gen Lee's army and detained large bodies of troops in and about Richmond which would otherwise have gone to reinforce Lee

FREDERICK Md July 9th —Gen Nagle with troops from Foster's North Carolina command, has been assigned to the command of Harper's Ferry

CHICAGO, July 10th —A New Orleans correspondent of the New York Tribune makes the following statement as regards the capture of Brashear city by the rebels from two men who escaped and from rebel sympathizers in the city I learn that a great contraband camp near Brashear city was dashed upon by furious Texans, when in camp a few weeks previously There were some 4 000 old men, women and children Of these 2 000 or 3,000 had been removed before the attack Those who remained were slaughtered by the Texan cavalry in the most shocking manner The cries of sucking babes the prayers of the aged, the shrieks of mothers had no effect The slaughter was terrible I thought that the massacre at St Martinsville where 50 men were found on mules striving to reach Gen Bank's army and who were surrounded captured and all hung a month ago was bad enough but this eclipses it completely

NEW YORK, July 11 —A special dispatch dated Middletown, Md last night says Buford destroyed 200 wagons on Monday and a Dahlgren 100 pounder On the same day 70 more wagons were destroyed Between 200 and 300 wagons were destroyed on Saturday and Sunday Fully one-third of the transportation of the rebel army has been destroyed On Saturday the enemy pressed our cavalry back upon Boonesboro, and on Sunday they threw some shells into the place Buford then dismounted, his horses being much exhausted, and fought the rebels two hours, driving them back to Antietam Creek Our scouts have captured letters which confirm the statement that the rebel army is trying to shove a portion of their army and wounded across the river A letter dated July 9th to the Tribune has the following particulars of the fight near Boonesboro

On Wednesday part of Stuart's forces supported by infantry took up a strong position in the woods south of the town After a determined resistance, the arrival of General Buford towards night resulted in a gallant charge of the 5th Michigan, which distinguished itself particularly upon the ground occupied by the rebel infantry, driving them from the woods Our forces occupied the ground first chosen by the rebels We lost from 50 to 100 killed the enemy lost about equally with the addition of 50 prisoners General Kilpatrick charged the enemy in their position, and drove them at least three miles

NEWBERN N C July 9th —The Legislature is now in session, acting on financial matters The Raleigh Register (rebel print) in referring to this extra session, says there is mischief brewing which "bodes no good" to the Confederate cause, and the history of that Legislature does not warrant us in anticipating anything but mischief at its hands Members from Castle county have come out in favor of the Constitution and the Union. The Wilmington Journal says other members intend advocating the same cause

Later details of the Union movement now progressing in North Carolina have been received by way of Fortress Monroe The dissatisfaction with the rebel Government is increasing daily and overtures to Major General Foster increase in boldness Not long since the Raleigh Standard contained an able article believed to have been written by W A Graham taking the strongest grounds against the right of secession and advocating the duty of the Federal Government to defend its own existence by force when secession threatens it The article denies that any just cause exists for the present rebellion and asserts that any State now claimed as belonging to the so called Confederacy can withdraw from it at will The same paper, in another article, openly favors peace by reconstructing the Union, or by separating, if resolved upon by a Convention of all the States The Standard also congratulates Rev R [illegible] Graves on his acquittal on the charge of treason and republishes with commendation an article which was made a pretext for his arrest by the rebel authorities

NEW YORK July 10 —A Boston dispatch says the pirate Florida was seen yesterday 80 miles southwest of Gay Head, burning a brig and a fishing schooner

WOODS HOLE Mass July 11 —The bark Ranger spoke the schooner Mary Van Huyden yesterday, who reported that two schooners were destroyed on the 6th by a bark-rigged rebel steamer

WASHINGTON July 10 —The surgeon general has official intelligence that in the department of the Gulf the ratio of the suffering from malarious diseases and death between white and colored soldiers is about eleven white to one colored

A Vallandigham Meeting at Accomac.

On Thursday, my boy, the report that a friend of the well-known Southern Confederacy had been arrested and court-martialed in Ohio for simply advising the intelligent masses to set fire to a few Union hospitals and go hunting after American eagles by the light thereof—this report, I say, excited among the loyal but seditious patriots of storied Accomac an indignation that was anything but speechless. Shades of our revolutionary sires! was it possible that a citizen of the Republic could no longer speak pieces without being arrested for speaking peace! Ashes of the great! could it be, indeed, true that, even where there were no police, a man's personal liberty was no longer safe! The people of Accomac, my boy, were alarmed for their own liberties, and at once held a public meeting, at which I happened to be present.

As all the citizens who were worth $300 each sent notes to say that they had imperative engagements to prepare for the approaching Conscription, and could not come, the meeting was composed entirely of the other citizens, many of whom engaged in single combat on their way thither, for the purpose of making the distance appear shorter. Punctually at seven o'clock P. M., a gentleman of much muscle touched off a small field-piece with such admirable precision as to break all the windows for two blocks around, and then dexterously discharged a two-pound sky rocket into the third story bedroom of a venerable maiden lady living across the road. The demonstration was received with joyous acclamations by the populace, nearly twelve of whom had already arrived; and a victim of Federal oppression, with a very large stomach, mounted the platform erected for the speakers, and said that he would commence proceedings on this occasion, by reading a short portion of Washington's Farewell Address from the volume of Bancroft which he held in his hand. (Great applause.) The honorable gentleman then proceeded to read something; but was interrupted by a reporter, who remarked that the speaker must be mistaken about that being Washington's Address, as he had certainly read it in the Bible. The honorable gentleman then turned his book over so that he had, indeed, made a slight mistake about the volume. He would defer reading the Address for the present, and begged leave to introduce Mr. John Smith, the Hon. Ferdinand de Percy having failed to be present.

Mr. Smith said it was the proudest moment of his life, and he felt it an honor to be there. They had met together to denounce and spit upon an infamous Administration, under whose tyranical sway no man was allowed to say one word against it. A fellow-citizen had been arrested in Ohio upon the miserable charge of advocating peace, when he was really disturbing the peace all he could. How long were such outrages to be endured? He advised his hearers to strictly honor the laws, but he would also have them go home, organize into regiments, purchase artillery, procure iron-clads, and destroy every man who dared to speak in favor of an Administration under which the boldest man dared not to express his sentiments. He would have them do all this peaceably; but he would have them do it. (Great enthusiasm, and cries of "Keep off my toes, durn ye!")

As Chesterfield Mortimer, the celebrated Accomac patriot, was not able to be present on this occasion, Mr. Jones was introduced, and made a few sensible remarks. He said that he had always been a law-abiding man, and would always advocate the strictest observance of the laws. The wretched Lincoln, he trusted would be assassinated at an early day, by some whole-souled man.

At this moment, my boy, the speaker suddenly stopped short; stared at a white object which had just appeared fluttering down the street; and then, dashing wildly from the platform, tore furiously in the direction of said object, which appeared to be moving, followed spontaneously and with frantic speed by his fellow-speakers and the entire meeting. I was astounded; I was overwhelmed; for such a sudden breaking up and precipitate flight of a great indignation meeting was never witnessed before. Quickly mounting the vacant rostrum, I drew my field-glass from my pocket, and proceeded to scan the wonderful white object which had produced such an electrical effect. It was moving on, as I fixed my glass upon it, and I found it to be a new banner borne by a fat young man in a white apron, and bearing the inscription:

BROOKSES
New Bar Room,
JUST OPEN.
Free Lunch Now Ready.

This it was my, boy, that had broken up one of the most significant meetings of the age, by artfully working upon the idea of this supposed inn-significance.

On reaching Washington, on my return, I heard that a serious-minded chap, of Republican officious-ness, had just waited upon the Honest Abe to ask if he did not intend to cause the arrest of Smith and Jones for their treason.

"What Smith and Jones, neighbor?"

"Why," says the seriousness-minded chap, earnestly, "the Smith and Jones of Accomac."

"Well, really," says the Honest Abe, pleasantly, "it's curious, now; but I never heard of them before."

Drawing an inference from this little circumstance of Executive conversation, my boy, it strikes me that it would add considerably to the importance of some of our large sized local revolutionists, if they could overturn the present ignorant Administration, and establish in its place a—Directory. Yours, double entendrily,

ORPHEUS C. KERR.

INSIDE OF LATTER-DAY DEMOCRACY.—From a slight circumstance, we are able to learn the true principles and workings of the latter day Democracy, alias copperheadism, alias treason. At Reed's Creek, on the 20th inst., the day of the copperhead primary meetings in this county, a good Democrat, (according to the new school,) approached a loyal Union man—John is his name—with the following:

Secesh Democrat—I say, John, I want you to go down to the Brig French school-house, to the Democratic meeting. You see there is going to be a great change in the course of sixty days. If Hooker don't whip Lee in that time, and take Richmond, England and France will acknowledge the Southern Confederacy, and the North will be obliged to; and we Democrats have only to hang together and we shall get our independence!

Loyal John—Look here, sir, you are a d—d secesh! There is but two sides to this question—either for or against the Union, and I want you to understand that I am for the Union every time, and forninst you and all your kind of rebels.

Secesh Democrat collapsed—found he had caught a tartar—thought John all right on the goose, as he was a Southern man by birth, but the goose didn't happen to be of the right persuasion, and "good sound Democrat" left in the full belief that John was a "Black Abolitionist."

By this little circumstance, we see the drift of latter-day Democracy. It is in the interests of the Jeff. Davis conspiracy, and rotten to the core with treason. Let those who have any respect for themselves avoid the pollution.—Red Bluff Independent.

R AYER'S
Cathartic Pills,
(SUGAR COATED,)
ARE MADE TO
CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK.
Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.
Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1,
DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect.
ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.
DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C.,
SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours,
ALONZO BALL, M. D, Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.
POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 15,
DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.
From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.
DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24,
DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.
JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.
From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4,
DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.
ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.
From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.
PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6,
HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.
DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.
VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
